4. Prior to 17 April, no advance parties or units had arrived at Kindel troop training grounds. The training ground was blocked to civilian traffic, however, which indicated that the area would soon be occupied. Railroadmen in Eisenach also expect incoming shipments. So far, Kindel troop training grounds had been used for artillery firing only on 6 and 16 April. The troops came from a northerly direction and engaged in driving from 2:15 to 3 p.m. only. Trucks [redacted] were repeatedly seen coming from the direction of Wartha. The trucks presumably hauled laundry to Eisenach from the troops at the border. ⁴
